

GRAND CANYON LODGE, NORTH RIM, GRAND CANYON NATIONAL PARK, ARIZONA

The new Grand Canyon Lodge located on the North Rim in Grand Canyon National Park, Arizona, is considered the finest of its type in any of the National Parks. It is built of native stone and timber and is unique in design and arrangement. Built on the brink of the Canyon, the lounge, dining room and recreation room command an excellent view of the Canyon. The North Rim is reached by Union Pacific Railroad to Cedar City, Utah, thence by delightful motor bus tour through 50 miles of the Kaibab National Forest.
