

To the summer vacationist and outdoor sports enthusiast, Sun Valley, Idaho, is an ideal vacation center. Every popular form of outdoor sport may be enjoyed: horseback riding, hiking, fishing, bicycling, chair-lift rides up Mt. Baldy, golf, skeet and trap shooting, and tennis. The large Olympic size ice rink is a scene of ice carnivals, and the skating instructors train advanced skaters as well as beginners. There are two outdoor swimming pools. Pack trips and big game hunting are available in the primitive mountain region near by. In the winter there is skiing, sleigh riding, and many other snow sports. If you wish only to loaf and relax, you'll enjoy a bracing climate of warm sunny days and cool nights.

At all seasons music, dancing and fun are enjoyed during the evening hours, including first-run movies in the Opera House.

The months of April, May, June, September through October 15 are popular times for conventions.

Sun Valley Lodge, Challenger Inn and Chalets provide a variety of comfortable, attractive, clean guest rooms at a wide range in price. Union Pacific Railroad Domeliner or Streamliners take you to Shoshone, Idaho, where you are transported by bus to picturesque Sun Valley Village.

Year around ice skating rink at Sun Valley, Idaho, is of standard Olympic dimensions.
