ZION BRYCE CANYON GRAND CANYON NATIONAL PARKS

N the June 27th issue of Life Magazine, natural color photographs of the Southern Utah-Arizona National Parks were placed before the eyes of over two million people.

It is not surprising that these famous regions, so rich in glowing colors, should be given wide publicity. Nowhere else in the world can be seen such a varied display of magnificent scenery the fascinating Nature-painted formations of Bryce . . the theatrical magnificence of Grand Canyon the haunting beauty of Zion.

And think of it! Not just one, but all three of these unparalleled attractions can be seen on one thrilling moderately-priced motor tour which also includes the colorful Cedar Breaks National Monument and vast Kaibab Forest, the latter a refuge for thousands of deer

Fast, air-conditioned Union Pacific trains speed your patrons to Lund, Utah, where they are met by bus for the trip to Cedar City, Utah, gateway to the Parks. Rail fare includes bus transportation Lund to Cedar City, Utah. From Cedar City, the allexpense cost of the 5-day tour through the National Parks is only $58.75.
