Southern California
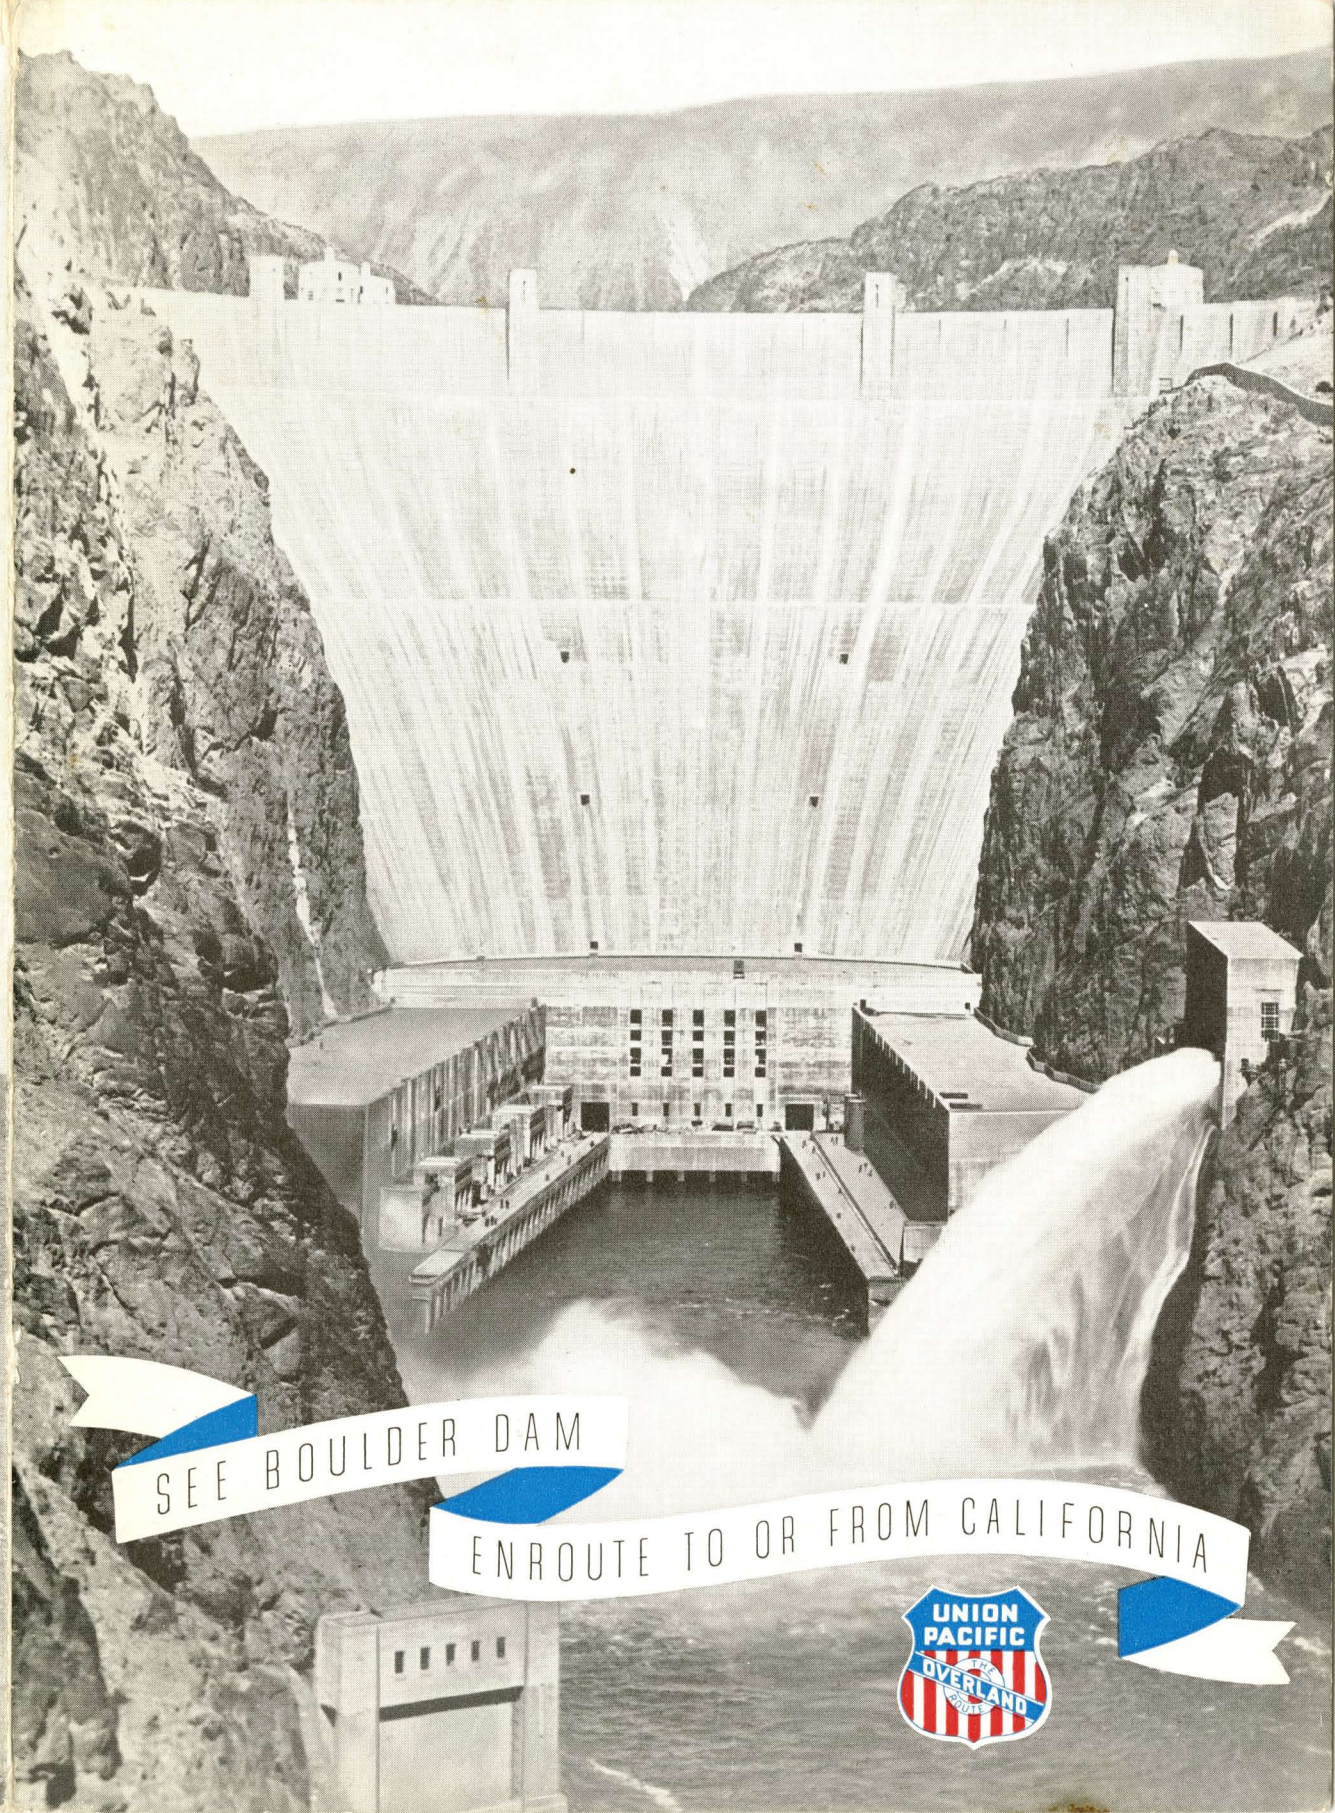

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA is an all-year, outdoor land—strong in contrast, endless in variety. With a climate approaching perfection, its orange groves stand beneath snow-clad mountains and its flowers bloom the year 'round along hundreds of miles of palm bordered highways. ● From city to seashore, to canyon, mountain or island resort requires but a few hours. ● California has always known the art of hospitality and provides the visitor with hotels, resorts and amusements according to his needs. Golf, fishing, hunting, all forms of aquatic and field sports, mountain climbing, camping and motoring flourish under genial skies at every season of the year. ● Union Pacific trains to and from California provide the maximum in travel comfort and enjoyment. They follow a scenic, historic and direct route over a highway of steel unsurpassed by any other railway system on earth. Boulder Dam, the West's newest and one of its greatest attractions, can be included as a stopover to or from Southern California. It is an easy, 29-mile side trip from Las Vegas, Nevada, on the main line of the Union Pacific.
