

*L*ofty Mt. Hood is king of the Cascade Range which forms a scenic background for Portland, Oregon — "The Rose City." It is sheathed by glaciers, has all the icy grandeur of a peak in Switzerland, and can be ascended with comparative ease.

For those who wish to climb the peak or view it at close range, there are splendid accommodations at famous Cloud Cap Inn, charming Timberline Lodge and other near-by hostleries.

The Alpine scenery of the Hood River region, the invigorating climate, makes it attractive to visitors the year 'round. Trout fishing, big game hunting, and winter sports may be enjoyed during their respective seasons.

Union Pacific trains parallel the majestic Columbia River for nearly 200 miles to and from Portland. Union Pacific Streamliner "City of Portland" is the fastest through train between Portland and Chicago and a favorite with travelers.
