

Winter transforms Sun Valley into a white fairyland. Nestled in a hollow of the Sawtooth Mountains of Idaho, America's foremost sports center is unsurpassed in beauty and charm. The timber-free slopes are covered with a powder-like snow that lingers until late spring, and the sun's rays are so brilliant that you may acquire a summer tan in just a few days.

Sun Valley offers perfect skiing terrain and excellent instruction for both the novice and expert. In addition, you may enjoy skating, sleighing, dog sledding, skijoring, and swimming in a warm-water outdoor pool, sheltered by a glass wall. Indoors, there is dancing during evening hours. And in the Game Room you will find bowling alleys and pool tables. If you wish you can attend a first-run movie at the quaint Opera House, or explore the near-by town of Ketchum, which still retains the spirit of the Old West.

Challenger Inn and Sun Valley Lodge provide a variety of comfortable, attractive guest rooms at a wide range in price. Modern Union Pacific trains take you to picturesque Sun Valley, via Shoshone, Idaho, from whence you are carried by bus for the short remaining distance.
