"ROOF GARDEN" DINING IS AN EXTRA TREAT ON DOMELINERS "CITY OF LOS ANGELES" AND "CITY OF PORTLAND"

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

ROAD OF THE DAILY Domeliners AND Streamliners

FIRST PAGE This unique map of "The Union Pacific West" illustrates better than words the romantic and scenic lure of the West to tourist and home seeker alike. History is repeating itself as the migration is again to the West, the fastest growing area in the nation for new homes and industry. Serving this great West, and in turn the nation, is Union Pacific's dependable freight and finest of passenger service.

JANUARY The Domeliner "City of Portland" is one of a fleet of Union Pacific trains providing daily service from such Pacific Coast cities as Seattle, Tacoma, Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles to Chicago and St. Louis. For relaxing, comfortable travel Union Pacific's Domeliners and Streamliners are unsurpassed.

1/5 second, F28, Daylight Color Film, 8x10 Eastman 2D Camera, 18 inch Apo-Tessar Lens.

FEBRUARY Western Dude Ranches are as much a part of Americana as the Pony Express and Wells Fargo. Shortly after the turn of the century, some of the ranches in the Union Pacific West began accepting "paying guests." Now every section of the West has fine dude ranches, each offering an ideal place for family vacations. For a helpful guide book write for Union Pacific's booklet "Dude Ranches Out West."

MARCH Erosion, Mother Nature's tireless sculptor, carved Zion Canyon from the red and white sandstone cliffs of Southern Utah. Most famous of its beautiful rock temples is The Great White Throne, towering 2,475 feet above the river at its base. Nearby, in a parklike area surrounded by other mountain temples, is Zion Lodge with comfortable cabin accommodations.

APRIL Mount Rainier in Rainier National Park, Washington, rises to a height of 14,408 feet. The Indians called it "The mountain that was God" —and justly so, for it takes supreme command of the entire Cascade range. Crowned with a halo of snow, Mount Rainier carries upon its shoulders 28 glaciers. Paradise Valley from which this view was taken is easily reached from Seattle or Tacoma.

MAY Bryce Temple in Bryce Canyon National Park, Utah, is but one of a bewildering assortment of fantastic stone formations. In Bryce nature has sculptured statues resembling famous people; spires and minarets; cathedrals, castles, bridges, and countless other formations. From spacious Bryce Canyon Lodge center near the rim you may visit all this fairyland by easy foot trails with a Ranger Naturalist or by horseback with cowboy guide.

JULY From Point Imperial, highest place on the North Rim, you'll enjoy this wonderful view of the matchless Grand Canyon of the Colorado River. At every hour of the day there's a different aspect of the Grand Canyon before your eyes. Perched on the brink of the gorge at Bright Angel Point is Union Pacific's Grand Canyon Lodge which is surrounded on its other three sides by the beautiful Kaibab Forest. It may be visited, along with Zion and Bryce, by comfortable motor bus tours from Cedar City, Utah, Union Pacific gateway to the parks.

AUGUST This view of Hallett Peak from Nymph Lake in Rocky Mountain National Park is but one of Colorado's many combinations of beautiful lakes and peaks. It is the most mountainous state in the country with thousands of peaks that rise to a height of more than two miles above sea level. This popular national park is about seventy miles northwest of Denver, the mile-high capital of Colorado. Denver is reached by fast over-night Union Pacific trains from Chicago or St. Louis, as well as by Domeliners and Streamliners from the West Coast.

SEPTEMBER Grand Teton National Park, just south of Yellowstone in western Wyoming, embraces the majestic Teton Range, Jackson Lake, the Snake River, and the historic valley adjacent to it. This valley known as "Jackson Hole," is the site of the new Jackson Lake Lodge with its deluxe cottage type accommodations. Historic Jackson Hole is a hunting and fishing paradise and the home of some of our finest dude ranches.

OCTOBER California is an all-year, four season, vacationland. A "must" on every tourist's list is a visit to world famous Catalina Island. Lying in the blue Pacific, just 25 miles from the mainland, it is but a two-hour cruise from Los Angeles-Long Beach harbor. If you don't know a Californian with a yacht to take you to the yacht harbor shown in this picture, you will find steamer service in season or year 'round motor launch service available.

NOVEMBER Hoover Dam, built to harness the mighty Colorado River and furnish vast power production, flood control and irrigation, is visited annually by over two million people. Lake Mead, formed by damming the river, is a National Recreation Area for fishing, swimming and boating. Here are held annual fishing derbies and motorboat regattas. It is easily reached from Las Vegas, Nevada, the "entertainment capital of the nation," when traveling to and from Southern California by Union Pacific.

DECEMBER No wonder Sun Valley is world-famed as a winter sports center. In high and dry south-central Idaho nature endowed it with perfect snow conditions lasting late into spring. From the Lodge you get this view of the "Meeting Place" from which buses whisk skiers to their favorite ski runs. This alpine-type village comprising Sun Valley Lodge, Challenger Inn, dormitory chalets, theater, shops, post office, Olympic size ice rink, is the "Mecca" for skiers the world over. Sun Valley is owned and operated by Union Pacific Railroad, and proudly so.

14th PAGE Another frontier in power is being opened. A fleet of Union Pacific 4,500 horse power gas turbine-electric locomotives have now been supplemented with even more powerful 8,500 horse power jet-principled locomotives. The world's first and largest fleet of this type of power is now available to Union Pacific shippers. Above you see a picture of a Union Pacific "fruit block," in other words a train load of perishables enroute from Pacific Coast to eastern markets.

15th PAGE The Golden Gate Bridge is the longest single suspension span in the world. It links San Francisco with beautiful suburban cities in Marin County, Mt. Tamalpais and Muir Woods. To the north lies the famous Redwood Empire, to the south the peninsula cities of Burlingame, San Mateo, Palo Alto (home of Stanford University), San Jose, Carmel and Monterey. Here from the Presidio grounds you see one of the hundreds of fishing boats from Fisherman's Wharf heading out for a catch.

16th PAGE "Roof Garden" dining is but one of the treats awaiting you in Union Pacific's dome dining car. In addition to the dome room, pictured above, there is the delightful main dining room on the lower level, and beneath the dome room is the exquisite "Gold Room" with seating for ten in private parties. In all three dining rooms the same selection of excellent food is attentively served in a gracious manner. The only dome dining cars in the world are on Union Pacific's Domeliners "City of Los Angeles" and "City of Portland" in service between Chicago and the cities for which they are named.
