

Former Sun Valley visitors, along with first-time guests, will be pleased to know that the golf course has been enlarged to 18 holes—a par-71. As if its charming scenic setting were not enough, nature "air conditions" it daily with breezes from the snow-capped Sawtooth mountains.

Sun Valley is one place where "western hospitality" has a meaning. The personal attention from employees . . . the warm, friendly greetings from fellow guests and the informal camaraderie all add up to a truly western welcome.

Nice thing about a Sun Valley summer . . . you don't have to be a hardy athlete to enjoy its many charms. There's a wide variety of fun and relaxation for all—from outdoor ice skating, horseback riding, golf, tennis, fishing and swimming for the more active . . . to ski lift riding or loafing or sun bathing on the leisure side. There's also bowling, bicycling, photography, hayrides and barbecues. Evenings are gay and informal, with music and dancing, or current movies in the "Opera House."

A supervised playground for children, with luncheons arranged by attendants, affords parents a full day's leisure. Baby-sitters are available when desired.

Sun Valley Lodge, Challenger Inn and Chalets provide a variety of comfortable, attractive guest rooms at a wide range in rates. Guests may enjoy all of the dining, entertainment and sports facilities regardless of where they may stay.

Union Pacific Domeliners and Streamliners, from both East and West, take patrons to Shoshone, Idaho, from where it is a short, but scenic ride by Sun Valley bus to this fine family resort.

Sun Valley's sporty new 18-hole course offers a test of skill and a variety of challenges, as this drive across Trail Creek shows. In the distance may be seen some of the ski runs on Mt. Baldy, one of the finest ski mountains in the world.
