COLTER BAY VILLAGE

Season May 29 to October 1, 1964

Situated 6 miles north of Jackson Lake Lodge, the Colter Bay facilities were designed primarily with private motorists in mind, however the Grand Teton Lodge Company buses provide transportation from Victor and Jackson Lake Lodge to and from Colter Bay Village. Tour patrons desiring to stay here may do so by special arrangements. Accommodations for 500 guests are provided in electrically heated Log Cabins each having bathroom with shower. Cabins vary in size, some having sleeping space for as many as six persons.

Taking advantage of the sheltered cove at Colter Bay, a fine marina was developed with dock and ramps, boat and tackle shops for fishing equipment, fishing guides, and swimming beach. Other facilities include a guest lounge, cafeteria, grill, general store, tap room, launderette, corral, service station and a National Park Service Information Center.

EUROPEAN PLAN, RATES PER CABIN PER DAY—One-Room Cabin with Semi-Private Bath, One Double Bed $7.00. One-Room with Private Bath, One Double and Single Bed $11.50. 2 Doubles and Single Bed $15.00. Two-Room Cabin with Connecting Bath (Double and Single bed in each room) $19.00.
