COLORADO SPECTACULAR

to ASPEN, COLORADO

Friday, September 17, 1965

Lv. Chicago (Un. Sta.) CB&Q RR 5:00 PM DST Fri. Sept. 17
Ar. Denver CB&Q RR 8:30 AM DST Sat. Sept. 18

By motor via Clear Creek Canyon, through old mining towns of Georgetown and Silver Plume, the former having been the site of the old Hotel De Paris, one of the most celebrated hotels west of the Mississippi and popular rendezvous for prospectors and gold miners, thence over wind-swept Loveland Pass to Vail for luncheon. Continuing in the afternoon through Ruby Canyon, along the Eagle and Colorado Rivers, spectacular Glenwood Canyon to Aspen, famous Colorado Ski Country U.S.A. Nestled at the foot of Aspen and Buttermilk Mountains, the quaint village of Aspen will be our home for two glorious days.

Sunday afternoon motor sidetrip to Redstone in the White River National Forest. Dinner and overnight in Aspen.

Monday morning we'll leave Aspen by motor after breakfast, retracing our journey through Glenwood Canyon and along the tumbling Colorado River. Luncheon at Vail. Continuing in the afternoon through Arapahoe National Forest and Mt. Vernon Canyon to Denver.

AUTUMN PANORAMA

to Colorado Springs—Pikes Peak—Air Force Academy

Friday, October 1, 1965

Lv. Chicago (Un. Sta.) CB&Q RR 5:00 PM DST Fri. Oct. 1
Ar. Colorado Springs D&RGW RR 10:40 AM DST Sat. Oct. 2

Immediately on arrival in Colorado Springs, we board waiting motors for a delightful sightseeing tour of the Garden of the Gods, including a stop at the Van Briggie Pottery Works.

Overnight accommodations Saturday and Sunday will be provided at leading Colorado Springs motels.

Afternoon open to permit you to rest and relax, shop, swim, or go sightseeing.

Sunday, we'll enjoy the thrill of our life when we motor to the top of wind-swept Pikes Peak—mighty patriarch of the Rockies, returning via the famous cog railway. On our return from Pikes Peak, we'll motor to the Flying W Ranch where a western-style dinner will be served followed by cowboy entertainment.

Monday, we continue our enjoyment of this incomparable resort, motoring to the vast U. S. Air Force Academy and return to the station and our waiting train.

Lv. Colorado Springs D&RGW RR 1:10 PM DST Mon. Oct. 4
