PASSENGERS WILL KINDLY REFRAIN FROM SMOKING IN THIS ROOM.

WHEREVER you travel on the Canadian Pacific, you will find the same desire to maintain that excellence of service for which the Company has been noted for over forty years. The seemingly effortless perfection of Canadian Pacific service is simply an infinite capacity for taking pains.

IT will be a great aid to the service and will avoid any possibility of mistakes if passengers will kindly ask for meal order blanks, and upon them will write their orders, because stewards and waiters are not allowed to serve any food without a meal check.

W. A. COOPER, Manager, Sleeping, Dining, Parlor Cars,
Station Restaurants and News Service, Montreal.

1881 .. Canadian Pacific .. 1931

IN THE heights of the Canadian Rockies were health and recreation, and so national parks were established and hotels were built. Where only the Indians had hunted on the mountains, now the great hotels at Banff and Lake Louise arrest the eye. In time, from one end of the land to the other: in the Maritimes, in the quaint old French City of Quebec, in Toronto, the Queen City of the Dominion, in the cities of the plains, in the Rockies, and on the shores of the Pacific Ocean, magnificent hostelries have arisen, which give Canada a new and enviable opportunity to tell her story to those who come and see her beauties and opportunities at first hand. Every Canadian Pacific hotel embodies the ideal of service, that has become a tradition of the Company and the country.

CANADIAN PACIFIC TODAY

The Canadian Pacific Railway runs from the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean. Its liners sail from Vancouver and Victoria to Japan and China, and from Montreal, Quebec and Saint John to Great Britain and the Continent. It operates winter cruises to the Mediterranean, the West Indies and Round the World, summer cruises to Norway and a winter service to Bermuda. Its chateaux and hotels represent the latest word in comfort and luxury. Its telegraph service employs 225,000 miles of wire. Its express travellers' cheques are current all over the world. Canadian Pacific offices and agents are to be found everywhere.
