Northern Pacific NOW offers ROOM privacy at BARGAIN prices for Coach Passengers.
A new EXTRA for economy-minded travelers...

Here’s mighty interesting news for economy-minded travelers who wish sleeping car accommodations which may be purchased on a coach ticket:

Northern Pacific has added to its Vista-Dome North Coast Limited, Chicago-Twin Cities-North Pacific Coast streamliner, a line of famous Slumbercoaches — sleek, modern, stainless steel, Pullman-operated cars with porter service which provide private rooms at a price that will pleasantly surprise you, in addition to a low-cost coach ticket. (See examples of room costs at right.)

Each Slumbercoach accommodates 40 passengers in 24 single rooms and 8 double-occupancy rooms. Each room has a comfortable, full-length bed, private toilet, wash basin, full length mirror, luggage space and individual heating and air-conditioning controls. Single rooms have a comfortable, arm-rest window seat and one bed; double rooms, which are larger, have two facing seats and upper and lower bunks. Toilet facilities are free and clear of the bed at all times.

Slumberericht — Of special interest to mothers traveling with babies is the unique Slumberericht — cloth over a frame — which may be suspended above or below the berth in the single room.

Portland passengers — The Slumbercoach operates between Chicago and Seattle, and passengers from or to Portland and other points in Oregon and California, may board or leave the Slumbercoach at Pasco, Wash., or at Seattle, where direct connections are made with Portland trains.

Coach Class Family Fare Tickets are good in Slumbercoaches, effecting even greater savings. Coast-to-Coast-by-Slumbercoach — Passengers may travel by Slumbercoach all the way between New England, New York or Washington, D.C., and the North Pacific coast. New York Central’s Chicago-New York Century and its New England States train between Chicago and Boston, and B&O’s Columbian between Chicago, Baltimore and Washington D.C., all have Slumbercoach service and all connect at Chicago with the Vista-Dome North Coast Limited.

Northern Pacific is first in the Northwest with Slumbercoaches
