WESTERN CLOTHING TIPS-During the summer season in the West, your choice of clothing should allow apparel for warm, sunny days yet cool, invigorating nights...especially in the mountain country and National Parks. Comfortable walking shoes, swimming suits and light sweaters will be found very handy on numerous occasions.

In the Far West, sports clothes are worn to a much greater extent than elsewhere and both in winter and summer, heavy wraps and formal evening wear are rarely required. Be sure to take your camera with you and filters for picturetaking on sunny days and of snow-capped mountain peaks.
