3000 MILES OF HOSPITALITY

This is one of a series of nine menu cards featuring some of the more prominent Fred Harvey hotels, restaurants and sight-seeing tours in scenic and historic areas and in metropolitan centers. A complete set of this series is available upon request.

Famous for its traditional atmosphere, the Alvarado is one of the outstanding Southwestern establishments of the Fred Harvey system. Built in 1901 and named after Hernando de Alvarado, Commander of Artillery in Coronado's great expedition, the hotel has since undergone a number of modernizations including air-conditioning; however the basic design of Spanish mission type architecture still boasts the wide verandas and sunny patios that characterize the style and invite, in the very heart of the bustling city, rest and relaxation in spacious halls and secluded gardens. The guest rooms are modern and comfortable. To the stately Dining Room, the modern Spot Light Room has been recently added, serving meals and cocktails. Large sample rooms and a number of other facilities and conveniences add to the hotel's popularity with many commercial travelers and tourists who would not stay anywhere but at the Alvarado. Adjoining the hotel is the Fred Harvey Indian Building with outstanding exhibits of Indian and Mexican handicrafts, one of the finest collections in existence.
