3000 MILES OF HOSPITALITY

This is one of a series of nine menu cards featuring some of the more prominent Fred Harvey hotels, restaurants and sight-seeing tours in scenic and historic areas and in metropolitan centers. A complete set of this series is available upon request.

Just a short stroll from Los Angeles' ancient Olvera Street rises amidst tropical palms and magnolia trees the gleaming white structure of the Union Terminal, one of the nation's most beautiful passenger stations. Built in 1939, it serves three great transcontinental railroads. Its spacious concourses and flowered patios bustle with throngs of travelers and sight-seers. Waiting time does not hang heavy on one's hands here, for there are several Fred Harvey restaurants and shops to while away the minutes or hours. There is the large and bright Dining Room, the modern Cocktail Room, the pleasant Cafeteria and the Roundabout Luncheonette, offering everything from simple refreshment to full-course dinner; and several Fred Harvey shops in the union concourse cater to the needs of travelers for books, candy, liquor and other gift items. This is one of the several large Fred Harvey operations in passenger stations, the largest of which are in Cleveland, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, Los Angeles and at the Albuquerque Municipal Airport.
